Group Bonding in Boats!

GUIDED KAYAKING FOR PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY GROUPS

604-61-WATER OR rockypointkayak.com

Looking for a fun and relaxing way to reward and energize your group?

Our group programs are the perfect solution for a few hours of quality time away from the office! The calm waters of the Burrard Inlet at Rocky Point provide a safe, comfortable environment for any first-time or occasional paddlers. With easy water access and lots of convenient on-land amenities, Rocky Point Park is a great place for your group's team-building experience. Our Paddle Canada certified guides are trained to provide your team with industry-standard safety skills, excellent paddling instruction, and interpretive knowledge of the local natural environment and its history.

Frequently Asked Questions

What if it rains?

Programs run rain or shine. However; we want your group to have a positive experience and safety is our primary concern. Rocky Point Kayak reserves the right to cancel programs if weather conditions are assessed to be hazardous.

What about safety gear?

Rocky Point Kayak provides participants with necessary paddling safety gear. All instructors are Paddle Canada certified and have first-aid skills & equipment.

What should we wear & bring?

Do NOT wear cotton! Wear layers of breathable, quick-drying fabric, and a layer of rain gear and a hat is recommended. Bring a change of clothing and footwear as this is a water sport! Also bring sunscreen, sunglasses and water to drink. Advise your group to not bring valuables or electronics.

What is the RPK guide-to-boat ratio?

The industry standard guide-to-boat ratio is 1 guide to 6 paddlers.

What should I do before our group arrives?

Let us know the precise number in your group and any requirements for double boats 48 hours prior to your program. This will allow us to arrange the correct number of guides and boats for your group.

What do we do when we arrive?

Please check in at RPK reception and ensure waivers are signed by each participant upon arrival.
